Application Heard: By teleconference April 12, 2001 at 2:00 p.m.

Decision Delivered: By Saunders, J.A. (Orally) on April 12, 2001

BEFORE THE HON. JUSTICE JAMIE W. S. SAUNDERS IN CHAMBERS

Saunders, J.A. (Orally):

- [1] There are two applications before me this afternoon. Mr. Rouleau, counsel for the Commission nationale des parents francophones (the Commission) first seeks an extension of time to apply to intervene and then seeks leave to intervene. Having considered all the briefs, case law and evidence filed in advance, as well as your helpful representations during teleconference, I am prepared to grant both applications upon terms.
- [2] I am satisfied that the applicant intervener has something to add to this court's overall consideration of the matters placed before it for appeal on May 11th. I am also persuaded, based upon the submissions of Mr. Rouleau, as well as the matters deposed to under oath by Jean-Pierre Dubé in his affidavit sworn April 3, 2001, that the Commission brings a unique perspective to the issues raised in this appeal. I will now list my specific directions, following which I will appoint one of you to prepare the necessary order.
- [3] First of all, the time within which the application for the intervention should have been filed and served is extended to close of business today, April 12th, 2001.
- [4] Second, the Commission will file and serve its factum by 12 noon Wednesday, April 18th, 2001.
- [5] Third, the Attorney General for Nova Scotia will, if so advised, have the opportunity to file its own supplementary factum in response to the Commission's factum by 12 noon April 25, 2001.
- [6] The decision as to whether or not the Commission will be given the opportunity to make any oral submissions at the appeal hearing on May 11, 2001, will be entirely within the discretion of the panel hearing it.
- [7] The Commission's factum will be limited to 20 pages.
- [8] The Commission's factum is restricted to the record before this court and the Commission shall not add anything to the record in its factum or any subsequent representations to the court.
- [9] The Commission will not be entitled to costs, either for today's applications or on appeal.
- [10] Mr. Rouleau I will leave it to you to prepare the necessary order.
