

Date: 20011019
Docket: CAC 169701

NOVA SCOTIA COURT OF APPEAL

[Cite as: R. v. Anderson, 2001 NSCA 154]

Glube, C.J.N.S.; Freeman and Saunders, JJ.A.

BETWEEN:

HER MAJESTY THE QUEEN

Appellant

- and -

STEPHEN FRANCIS ANDERSON

Respondent

REASONS FOR JUDGMENT

Counsel: Kenneth F. W. Fiske, Q.C., for the appellant
Stephen Francis Anderson, the respondent, in person
Walter I. Yeadon for Nova Scotia Legal Aid
Edward Gores for the Attorney General of Nova Scotia

Appeal Heard: October 19, 2001

Judgment Delivered: October 19, 2001

THE COURT: Application to appoint counsel under s. 684 of the Criminal Code is granted, per oral reasons for judgment of Glube, C.J.N.S.; Freeman and Saunders, JJ.A. concurring.

GLUBE, C.J.N.S.: (Orally)

[1] After hearing the submissions of counsel, it is desirable in the interest of justice that the accused should have legal assistance and an order will follow if necessary.

Glube, C.J.N.S.

Concurred in:

Freeman, J.A.

Saunders, J.A.