

Docket: CA 162431
Date: 20001114

NOVA SCOTIA COURT OF APPEAL

[Cite as: Comeau v. Nova Scotia (Workers' Compensation Board), 2000 NSCA 130]

Roscoe, Hallett and Flinn, JJ.A.

BETWEEN:

ALLEN COMEAU

Appellant

- and -

WORKERS' COMPENSATION APPEALS
TRIBUNAL , ATTORNEY GENERAL and
WORKERS' COMPENSATION BOARD
OF NOVA SCOTIA

Respondents

REASONS FOR JUDGMENT

Counsel: Appellant appeared in person
Sarah Bradfield for the Respondent, WCAT
Alexander Ikejiani for the Respondent, Attorney General
Janet E. Curry and Madeleine F. Hearn for the Respondent, WCB

Appeal Heard: November 14, 2000

Judgment Delivered: November 14, 200

THE COURT: Leave to appeal is dismissed as per oral reasons for judgment of Roscoe, J.A.; Hallett and Flinn, JJ.A., concurring.

The reasons for judgment were delivered orally by:

ROSCOE, J.A.:

[1] We see no error of law or jurisdiction in this case and we therefore have no choice given our limited role in Workers' Compensation matters but to deny leave to appeal. The application for leave is therefore dismissed.

Roscoe, J.A.

Concurred in:

Hallett, J.A.

Flinn, J.A.