

NOVA SCOTIA COURT OF APPEAL

Cite as: Mattes v. Mattes, 1997 NSCA 30
Clarke, C.J.N.S.; Hart and Chipman, JJ.A.

BETWEEN:

MARTIN MATTES

Appellant

) The Appellant in Person

- and -

GAIL DOROTHY MATTES

Respondent

) Peter van Feggelen
) for the Respondent

) Appeal Heard:
) January 9, 1997

) Judgment Delivered:
) January 9, 1997

THE COURT: Leave to appeal refused from interim order concerning issues of maintenance and access, per oral reasons for judgment of Clarke, C.J.N.S.; Hart and Chipman, JJ.A. concurring.

NOVA SCOTIA COURT OF APPEAL

BETWEEN:

MARTIN MATTES

Appellant

- and -

GAIL DOROTHY MATTES

Respondent

REASONS FOR JUDGMENT BY:

CLARKE, C.J.N.S.
(Orally)

The reasons for judgment of the Court were delivered orally by:

CLARKE, C.J.N.S.:

This is an appeal from an interim order of Justice Carver dated September 3, 1996 and issued September 16, 1996.

Leave of the Court is required to appeal.

The parties agree that the outstanding issues will be dealt with at a trial in the Supreme Court of Nova Scotia at Kentville on January 24 and 27, 1997.

Accordingly, leave to appeal the interim order is refused, without costs.

C.J.N.S.

Concurred in:

Hart, J.A.

Chipman, J.A.