

NOVA SCOTIA COURT OF APPEAL

Citation: Wilson v. Nova Scotia (Attorney General), 2012 NSCA 14

Date: 20120207

Docket: CA 353659

Registry: Halifax

Between:

Douglas C. Wilson and Kathleen A. Wilson

Appellants

v.

The Attorney General of Nova Scotia and
Nova Scotia Utility and Review Board

Respondents

Judges: MacDonald, C.J.N.S., Hamilton and Beveridge, JJ.A.

Appeal Heard: January 26, 2012, in Halifax, Nova Scotia

Held: Appeal dismissed, per judgment of the Court.

Counsel: Appellants in person
Mark Rieksts, for the respondent, The Attorney General of Nova Scotia, not participating
Richard J. Melanson, for the respondent, Nova Scotia Utility and Review Board, not participating

By the Court:

[1] The appellants appeal the decision of the Nova Scotia Utility and Review Board dated July 5, 2011, in which the Board upheld the decision of the Dispute Resolution Officer with respect to the proposed schedule of payments to be made by the appellants to Nova Scotia Power Incorporated.

[2] The respondents chose not to participate in the appeal.

[3] Section 30 of the Utility and Review Board Act, 1992, c. 11, s. 1, permits an appeal to this Court from an order of the Board “upon any question as to its jurisdiction or upon any question of law”. After a thorough review of all the materials filed by the appellants and a consideration of their oral arguments, we cannot find any issue going to the jurisdiction of the Board or an error of law. The appeal is therefore dismissed.
