

NOVA SCOTIA COURT OF APPEAL

Jones, Roscoe and Pugsley, JJ.A.
Cite as: R. v. Pearch, 1993 NSCA 103

BETWEEN:

TERRY GORDON PEARCH

Appellant

- and -

HER MAJESTY THE QUEEN

Respondent

)
 Roger A. Burrill
 ) for the Appellant

Robert C. Hagell
for the Respondent

Appeal Heard:
April 8, 1993

Judgment Delivered:
April 8, 1993

THE COURT: Appeal dismissed per oral reasons for judgment of Jones, J.A.; Roscoe and Pugsley, JJ.A. concurring.

The reasons for judgment of the court were delivered orally by:

JONES, J.A.:

We see no merit in this appeal.

We agree with the trial judge that the appellant was properly informed of his right to counsel under s. 10(b) of the Charter and that he waived his rights. We would note in this regard that the appellant did not testify on the trial. The appeal is dismissed.

J.A.

Concurred in:

Roscoe, J.A.

Pugsley, J.A.

NOVA SCOTIA COURT OF APPEAL

BETWEEN:

TERRY GORDON PEARCH

Appellant

- and -
FOR

BY:
HER MAJESTY THE QUEEN

Respondent

REASONS

JUDGMENT

JONES,
J.A.