Judge: The Honourable John D. COMEAU
Chief Judge of the Family Court of Nova Scotia

Heard: Heard at Yarmouth, Nova Scotia, January 28, 2009

Written Decision: March 12, 2009

Issue: Reduction in Child Support

Summary: The applicant applied for a reduction in child support and provided the Court with financial information that showed steady income as a lobster fisherman for three years. His 2008/2009 income indicates a reduction of 54% in both present and prospective income.

Result: Child Support reduced based on the Applicants prospective income which had decreased 54 %. The Court found the child support was based on the most current and prospective income.
