Restriction on Publication Publishers of this case please take note that Section 94(1) of the Children and Family Services Act applies and may require editing of this judgment or its heading before publication. Section 94 provides:

94(1) No person shall publish or make public information that has the effect of identifying a child who is a witness or a participant in a hearing or the subject of a proceeding pursuant to this Act, or a parent or guardian, a foster parent or a relative of the child.

Judge: The Honourable Judge John D. Comeau, a Judge of the Family Court for the Province of Nova Scotia

Heard: November 2, 2010 and November 8, 2010, in Shelburne, Nova Scotia

Subject: Review of disposition, section 46 Children Family Services Act

Summary: The Respondent, F.W., waited until the last minute to obtain proper housing. Her common-law spouse would not participate in the review although he would be maybe living with the children. The children had specific needs the mother was unaware of and incapable of satisfying.

Issue: Dismissal or permanent care. Time limit for other orders expired.

Result: Permanent care order. F.W's plan was unreasonable and incapable of being carried out. Although she finished courses required, she did not pro-actively take measures to have her children returned to her.
