LIBRARY HEADING

Judge: The Honourable Judge John D. Comeau, JFC

Heard: July 15, 2013 at Annapolis Royal, Nova Scotia

Issue: Custody / Access / Mobility

Summary: Child who is 12 years old resided with father in Nova Scotia since March, 2013. Mother who was upgrading her education had specified access. The child is a gifted person involved in music and other activities, including art. She is an A student academically and has lots of friends in Nova Scotia. The mother moved to Alberta and wanted the child to try it there for at least one school semester.

A child wish assessment indicated the child wanted to stay in Nova Scotia with her father.

Result: Child to remain in the care and custody of the father with specified access to the mother.
