v.

A “L” G

Respondent

LIBRARY HEADING

Judge: The Honourable Justice Theresa M. Forgeron

Heard: December 2 and 3, 2014, in Sydney, Nova Scotia

Oral Decision: December 16, 2014

Written Decision: December 22, 2014

Subject: Family Law

Issues: Child Support; calculation of income; s. 7 university expenses; retroactive payment

Result: Cash transactions from mowing lawns to be included as income. No imputation because payor had obligation to report cash transactions to Revenue Canada. Cash transactions are not exempt income.

S. 7 university expenses not awarded where student’s resources exceeded the cost of the university expenses.

Retroactive payment granted given the failure of payor to accurately report income, the needs of the children, and the fact that any hardship was self-induced and was mitigated by a repayment schedule.
