LIBRARY HEADING

Judge: The Honourable Justice Theresa M. Forgeron

Heard: October 11, 2012, Sydney, Nova Scotia

Written Decision: November 2, 2012

Subject: Family Law

Issue: Agency seeking permanent care order when legislative time lines not exhausted.

Result: Permanent care refused. Meaning of "reasonably foreseeable" reviewed. Factors to be considered identified. An objective observer, with knowledge of the relevant and pertinent facts, would not conclude that the circumstances giving rise to the protection order are unlikely to change within a reasonably foreseeable time, not exceeding the maximum time limits.
