Docket: 1206-5648
Registry: Sydney

Between:

Laurie Lee Gouthro

Petitioner

v.

John James Gouthro

Respondent

LIBRARY HEADING

Judge: The Honourable Justice Theresa M. Forgeron

Heard: January 26 and February 17, 2011, in Sydney, Nova Scotia.

Written Decision: June 15, 2011

Subject: Family Law

Issue: Access; Child Support; University Expenses; Retroactive Maintenance.

Result:

- Father awarded overnight, holiday, and extended access to 16 year old daughter, with diabetes.
- Child support, table amount, payable for child living at home; less than the table amount for child living in New Brunswick and attending university eight months of the year.
- Father and mother to contribute to son's university expenses.
- No retroactive maintenance where father assumed son's $28,000 student loan debt, and had contributed to the children's expenses in the past, and where mother received a $3,500 unequal division of the assets.
- Costs of $2,500 awarded to mother because of father's four year failure to disclose income information contrary to the interim court order.
